October 20, 2022 | 9:00 – 11:00 AM | Assisted Living Emphasis

COURSE OVERVIEW

Medication services are consistently cited by DSHS and most often fall within the top 5 most cited regulations year after year. The nuances of medication assistance vs. administration, combined with the numerous systems necessary to promote excellent medication management, make medication services overall a moving target. This session will cover the medication-related regulations pertaining to assisted living settings and outline systematic monitoring methods to maximize efficiencies while minimizing errors and citations. This webinar is perfect for the lead medication aide/tech in your building; resources to build that person's knowledge will certainly enhance facility self-monitoring.
